By MOLLIE RUNCORE

Professor Griffin, of the Oregon Agricultural college, gave an illustrated lecture on the City Beautiful movement to the residents of North Salem, at the Grant school, last night, under the direction of the Parent-Teachers' association. There was a general discussion of the subject and much interest manifested by the younger as well as the older folk. Corvallis residents have long been interested in the beautifying effort and much has been accomplished along this line in their city.

Several plans for activities are under way in North Salem for the continuance of making this locality more attractive, and they will be carried out as rapidly as possible.

A special meeting was held Saturday afternoon and another took place this afternoon at the home of different ones interested in the clean-up movement. The fifth of each of the months of April, May and June have been designated general clean-up days, and it is planned to continue the efforts until every portion of North Salem has been cleaned and reached by the beautifying effort.

The Parent-Teacher circle of the Lincoln school meets this evening at the school house at half past seven o'clock. The program will be an especially interesting one. Besides the singing of old songs by the society, Mr. Blumeburg will give two selections on the sither-harp. Superintendent Elliott will give the address of the evening on "What Education Is of Most Worth."

Final plans for the club work will also be taken up and discussed.

The picture for attendance will be given to the room which has had the best percentage of attendance of parents at the meetings during the entire year. Everyone is cordially invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Cook were the inspiration for an enjoyable surprise last Thursday evening, about forty of their friends joining in giving the event. Miss Mignon Oliver and Miss Frances Penn delighted the guests with readings, and vocal and instrumental selections were likewise enjoyed. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd White, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Vail, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith and daughters, Helen and Florence, Mrs. Rachel Reed, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Priddy, Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Mrs. S. E. Oliver, Miss Minnie Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mr. Ivan Martin, Mrs. Ella Wilson, Miss Stella Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Penn, Miss Frances Penn, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Darling, Mr. and Mrs. Matlock, Mrs. Mary Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Pascal Taggle, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Cook, Mrs. Norma Lettingwell, Mrs. George McKinnis, Mr. Terwilliger, Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Asselt, Mrs. Mary Bewley, Miss Ruth Smith, Mrs. Nellie Knox and Mrs. Given.

Mrs. A. L. Brown will entertain the Priscilla club Thursday afternoon at her home on South Commercial street.

A surprise birthday dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Martin, 1560 South High street, Sunday. All of Mr. Martin's children and grandchildren came with well filled baskets to surprise him on the occasion of his birthday. Not only his birthday but those of three of his grandchildren and two children were celebrated. One pretty feature of the dinner was the serving of the ten children at separate tables, the centerpiece of which was a huge birthday cake, with candles representing the years of each of the five birthdays.

Being an ideal day, out-of-door recreations were participated in.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Witzel, J. M. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. William Stadel, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bowles, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. N. Witzel, S. Campbell, Miss Mabel Campbell, Misses Hilda and Beulah Witzel, Misses Thelma and Hazel Martin, Miss Alta Martin, Messrs. Kenneth Martin, Clair Martin, Harold Stapleton, Richard and Thomas Hughes, and Master Dolphine Witzel.

Under the caption "Cupid Is Passenger," and an attractive picture of the couple discussed on board the steamer, appeared the following item in yesterday morning's Oregonian:

"The flagship of the Big Three line, had a precious cargo when she pulled away from the dock for San Francisco yesterday afternoon, for two brides and two bridegrooms were among those who made up the full passenger list. They were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Quinn (Miss Anna Breitenstein), of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. William W. Tara, of Portland, and their honeymoon will be an interesting one, as all the passengers on the steamer were privately informed."

"Old songs and plays were placed on stateroom door No. 18, but were quickly removed by the blushing Mr. Quinn. From there they were taken to Mr. Tara's quarters and artistically arranged. When found by the second bridge-keeper they were given to the sea gulls, but sank in the river, as sea gulls don't wear old shoes."

Clubs scheduled to meet this week are the Elite Embroidery club, which will be entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Mary Rodgers; the Thimble club of Silver Bell circle, at the home of Mrs. Snook, on Union street.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. B. L. Steeves tomorrow afternoon at half past two o'clock.

Mrs. Margaret Osborn, of Newport, formerly in charge of the Hotel Osborne, is the guest of Mrs. A. W. Davis and other friends here this week.

In appreciation of the splendid work done, and their assistance in Sunday

CHARLES BENNETT FINDS NEW CHARGES GROWING

"It never rains but it pours," "out of the frying pan into the fire," "murder will out" and a few other choice epigrams have no doubt been passing into review in continuous succession in the mind of Charles Bennett, who is confined in the county jail here and against whom complaint was filed by District Attorney Ringo this afternoon charging him with lewd and lascivious cohabitation with Ivy Nelson, also a young married woman of Donald, in the north part of this county. And thereby hangs an interesting tale of the evolution of events which led up to the criminal situation which Bennett now finds himself confronted.

Last Saturday Chief Deputy Sheriff Needham went to Donald and arrested Bennett upon information from the officers of Seattle who stated that he was wanted there for the detention of his wife and four-year-old baby boy. Later, however, the Seattle authorities notified Deputy Needham that King county would not stand the expense of Bennett's extradition and instructed him to turn him loose. It developed, in the meantime, that Bennett had been living with the Donald woman as his wife for more than a year past, her father living with them under the impression that his daughter and Bennett were married, and that the Nelson woman is about to become a mother.

It also has developed that the Nelson woman has also been married and that, although she has been separated from her husband, she has never had a divorce and matters are getting rather complicated concerning both parties but no charges have been preferred against the Nelson woman. It appears that Bennett deserted his wife about two years ago and that she has been moving the country far and wide in the effort to find some trace of him. He was formerly an employee of the Milwaukee railroad and was confined in a Tacoma hospital. He left the hospital April 20, 1912, and has not been heard of since until located by the Seattle authorities at Donald in this county.

LEGAL BATTLE OVER THAW'S SANITY BEGINS

By Bond P. Gadder.

New York, March 9.—Presentation of testimony in the trial of Harry K. Thaw and five others on charge of conspiracy to obtain Thaw's escape from Matteawan began in the supreme court at noon today.

In his address to the jury, Deputy Attorney General Kennedy declared Thaw is "truly insane," but nevertheless is criminally responsible for his part in the conspiracy. He pictured graphically Thaw's flight from the asylum through New Hampshire and into Canada and he declared that the finding in the last habeas corpus suit that Thaw was insane was binding. The question of sanity cannot now be raised, Kennedy asserted.

Before witnesses were called a formal motion by the defense to dismiss the indictments was denied.

Rumors were rife that Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, wife of the principal defendant, might testify but counsel for both sides disclaimed knowledge of such a plan.

Kennedy mentioned an unnamed "higher up" who, he asserted, acted as go-between for Thaw in his plans to escape from Matteawan. This man, the prosecutor declared, engaged the services in which Thaw fled and otherwise planned the flight.

This man is now dead, said Kennedy. Edward Conroy, Thaw's attendant at Matteawan, was the first witness. He described the principal defendants escape on Sunday morning August 17, 1913.

Two important rulings, both unfavorable to Thaw, were handed down by Justice Page before the taking of testimony. The court upheld the validity of the order which confined Thaw to Matteawan and he also sustained the theory of the prosecution that the "due process of law" to obtain the discharge of an insane person was by habeas corpus or by certification of the recovery of sanity.

Don't Merely "Stop" a Cough

Stop the Thing That Causes It and the Cough will Stop Itself

A cough is really one of our best friends. It warns us that there is inflammation or obstruction in a dangerous place, therefore, when you get a bad cough don't proceed to dose yourself with a lot of drugs that merely "stop" the cough temporarily by deadening the throat nerves. Instead, use a remedy that removes the cause of the inflammation. Here is a home made remedy that gets right at the cause and will make an obstinate cough vanish more quickly than you ever thought possible.

Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint of the most pleasant and effective cough remedy you ever used, at a cost of only 24 cents. No bother to prepare. Full directions with Pinex.

It heals the inflamed membranes so gently and promptly that you wonder how it does it. Also opens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent low cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, rich in vitamin, and is famous the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

MAY ABOLISH "SPOTTER" SYSTEM ON RAILROADS

First of Labor Measures Passed California Assembly After Hot Debate.

Capitol, Sacramento, Cal., March 9.—The first of the so-called labor measures passed the assembly today when by a vote of 60 to 16, Ryan bill seeking to abolish the present "spotter" system used by railroads and streetcar companies triumphed after a debate of two hours during which time heated remarks were made by several members. The bill provides that before an employee is discharged on the report of a private detective or "spotter" that he has the right to face his accuser and deny the charges.

It was brought out in the debate that considerable work was done during the recent recess by both railroad and streetcar companies favoring the bill and the railroads opposed to it. The inner workings of private detectives engaged by railroads to watch employees were revealed by those favoring the passage of the bill. Speaker opposing mainly stated that it would be difficult for railroads to maintain discipline if there was no provision for privately watching men who might violate orders or who might overlook turning cash fares into the railroad companies.

Litney Bus Crushed Between Street Cars

Portland, Or., March 9.—Two women passengers were seriously injured at noon today when a litney bus driven by S. B. Pendergrass was caught between two trolley cars at Grand Avenue and Belmont street and ground to pieces.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cook escaped with cuts and bruises and a badly wrenched ankle; Mrs. Roy Volheim was hurt about the back. Both women were holding babies on their laps but neither child was scratched.

Pendergrass, in attempting to cross the car track ahead of a northbound car, was nipped both by it and the southbound car crossing the intersection at the same time. Both women are at a hospital. Pendergrass was slightly hurt.

SELF-RELIANT HOME DOCTORS.

Is what women are called who all over the broad land make their annual collections of roots and herbs, and rely upon recipes, which our pioneer mothers found dependable for different family ailments. In one of these recipes, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had its origin and so successful has it proved that there is hardly a city, town or hamlet in America where some women who have been restored to health by its use does not reside.

Germans Claim Victory For Dardanelles Forts

Berlin, by wireless to Saville, L. I., March 9.—Not a single mine has been cleared from the Dardanelles by the Allied-French fleet, according to the latest Ankara's Constantinople correspondent today.

He said he had visited the Turkish positions and had ascertained that only one tenth of the Turkish batteries along both shores of the strait had answered the fleet's fire. Several British ships have been damaged, the dispatch declared.

Attempts by the allies to send landing parties ashore were repulsed, according to Turkish commanders.

Berlin newspapers are united in deploring the results of the bombardment of the forts so far have been negligible. They also carried reports that the British super-dreadnaught Queen Elizabeth had been badly damaged.

And many a man has ruined his night sitting in a saloon looking for work.

JOSEPH LEITER TO TESTIFY ON WHEAT IN BREAD INQUIRY

JOSEPH LEITER

New York, March 4.—Joseph Leiter, who once tried to corner America's wheat market, has been asked to testify on February 26 at the inquiry into the raise in the price of bread. Mr. Leiter is expected to tell what he knows of the present wheat situation. Deputy Attorney General Becker, who is conducting the probe, wants to know how and far speculators are responsible for the present high price of wheat and how much of it is due to abnormal exportations because of the war.

Big Lumber Order Starts Oregon Mills Running

Mills in Western Oregon and Western Washington have commenced filling an order from the Union Pacific railroad system for 1,200,000 feet of fir lumber for immediate delivery at Eastern car shops. The lumber will be used in the building of bodies of cars for hauling grain and livestock. The cars will be allotted to the Union Pacific, Oregon Short Line and Oregon Washington Railroad & Navigation lines during the coming summer and fall. Another order for more than 1,000,000 feet of lumber for the Union Pacific will be placed with mills in this district within the next few weeks, it is stated.

How to Fight Tuberculosis

In a paper read last week before the Texas County Medical Society and published in part in the Louisville "Medical Progress," Dr. J. W. Cacheris, of San Antonio, Texas, a physician who has devoted much time to the study of tuberculosis, said: "Since lime salts constitute three-fourths of all the mineral substances of the human body, they must be supplied in the foods or supplemented in mineral preparations, or natural starvation causes with tuberculosis an unchecked spread of the disease."

Since this is one of the ingredients of Eckman's Alternative, the widespread and unchecked spread of tuberculosis and other preventable diseases is due directly to the lack of essential lime lacking conditions of malnutrition throughout the civilized world.

Thus from another authoritative medical source comes justification for the use of lime in the treatment of tuberculosis.

Since this is one of the ingredients of Eckman's Alternative, the widespread and unchecked spread of tuberculosis and other preventable diseases is due directly to the lack of essential lime lacking conditions of malnutrition throughout the civilized world.

Specialist Explains Cause of Stomach Trouble

VALUABLE ADVICE TO SUFFERERS

There are many different forms of stomach trouble, but practically all are traceable to excessive acidity and food fermentation. That is why the results obtained from the use of drugs are usually so disappointing. Admitting fermentation and consequent acidity of the food contents to be the underlying cause of most forms of indigestion, it naturally follows that the use of a reliable antacid, such as the pure bisulphate of magnesia which is so frequently prescribed by physicians, will produce better results than any known drug or combination of drugs. Accordingly I almost invariably advise those who complain of digestive trouble to get some bisulphate of magnesia (note the name carefully, as other forms are unsuitable for this purpose), from their druggist, and take from one to two teaspoonfuls of the powder, or two 5 grain compressed tablets, with a little water after meals. This by immediately neutralizing the acid and stopping the fermentation, removes the cause of all the trouble and insures normal and healthy digestion.

"We are just going for a ride," explained the baby's mother today. "I am not the least afraid of taking baby up in an airship. I suppose it is because I have so much confidence in my husband. Harry and I were married in an aeroplane at Seattle and I flew with him two weeks before the baby was born."
